

EUROPEAN VENTURE CAPITAL & PRIVATE EQUITY JOURNAL

DB Capital Partners Hires

Charles Flynn has been hired by DB Capital Partners as head of fund investing, overseeing all of Deutsche Bank's private equity fund investing activities and managing both the fund-of-funds and the secondary fund investing businesses. Flynn, a managing director, will be based in New York and report to Ted Virtue, chairman and CEO of DB Capital Partners.

Flynn spent three years at AXA Investment Managers in New York; as managing director, he founded, created and managed its global third-party fund-of-funds business with €1 billion in assets, with particular emphasis on developing a European investor base.

November 01, 2001